

Privacy Policy

The Casino School

This web site is administered by the International College of Advanced Education (ICAE). The following provides an overview of how your privacy is protected during your visit.

Collection of information

Information on this website is gathered in two ways:

- indirectly through our site's technology; and
- directly when you provide information to us.

One example of information we collect indirectly from you is through our Internet access logs. When you access this site your Internet address is automatically collected and is placed in our Internet access logs.

One example of information we collect directly from you is through forms you may complete on our website.

Use of information

We analyse information obtained on this web site to determine the effectiveness of our site and modify it to improve the service for users. If information we collect from you is used for any other purpose, you will be advised of our intent when we request information from you.

Protection of Information

We will not disclose any information that we gather about our staff or clients to any third party. We use the information collected only for the services we provide. Staff and client information is not shared with another organisation other than for legal reporting purposes. If a third party requires staff or client information we will obtain written consent from the relevant staff member or client, prior to the release of any information.

Should a member or client seek access to their information we have a documented procedure requiring authorisation before this can occur.
